My dear Sir,

I cannot tell you with what pleasure I received yours of the 14th for your being silence had made me apprehend that you were out of health. I was the more uneasy as I knew of no person in London who might give me information respecting you, Miss Linden being as I suppose at present in Switzerland with her Aunt Margaret.

I was much pained to hear that your poor little girl has been so severely ill, and to know that you must have suffered so much in consequen I trust that she is now improving daily, and that she will soon be running about again as happy as ever.
Give her a kiss from me, and tell her it is from her Father's friend, who lives far away, across the wide sea, and loves little children very dear I am sorry the Memorial was not in time; but I hope we shall be more fortunate in the next Session, and that by your kind aid we shall obtain a favorable result.

nce I think its presentation by Tennyson will give it force, added to the signatur t which you know so well how to select.

I know not how to express to you my gratitude for all that you have done e for me. I only wish it were ly in my power to make some return to you for so much goodness.

I am interested respectfu

Dear Jennings, because I suspect he is a Cousin of mine. You will think it strange that I dont know my own relations If he really proves out to be my cousin, I will explain to you the when and the wherefore

Dont think of neglecting my trifling commissions except when you have nothing pertinent to occupy you

Mr Hanes and family desire to be kindly remembered to you
